Opposing Viewpoints in Context
Gale Cengage Co.  |  Farmington Hills, Michigan

Opposing Viewpoints in Context is an easy-to-use information resource for students, teachers, professors, subject experts, lawyers, lawmakers, or anyone who needs to quickly learn the different perspectives for a major topic.

Summaries of opposing viewpoints are provided for key topics such as business and economics; energy and environment; health and medicine; law and politics; science and technology; U.S. society and culture; war; and diplomacy. Each summary is written by an expert.

BookFlix
Scholastic  |  New York, NY

BookFlix is a beginners reading website that combines animated fictional stories with related nonfiction books. This resource helps young readers see and understand English and to learn about science, geography, history, and other subjects along the way.

Visit your nearest American Space to learn how you can access eLibraryUSA.

eLibraryUSA is a digital collection of trusted information resources from the United States with quality newspapers, magazines, journals, books, dissertations and award-winning films and videos.

Fake information helps the few.
Real information helps the many.
With the world connected through the internet, false information can spread across the globe in less than a minute. A positive way to respond to this serious dilemma is to provide communities with access to real information, written by experts, fact-checked and designed to inform and educate. The collection of quality resources in eLibraryUSA is well-known throughout North America and Europe and meets the standards of publishers, academics, journalists, and media companies.

eLibraryUSA is completely free of charge to use at American Spaces.

eLibraryUSA is sponsored by the Office of American Spaces, U.S. Department of State, in partnership with the U.S. Embassy.